Where given by courier such notice will be deemed to have been served three business days after posting and proof that the envelope containing the notice was properly addressed and sent prepaid shall be sufficient evidence of service. Notices given in person or by email transmission shall be deemed to be served immediately provided that in the case of email transmission no automated delivery failure response shall have been received by the sender. The Exhibitor may rely on any representation, warranty, collateral contract or other assurance (except as set out in these Terms and Conditions and the Exhibitor's Manual) made by or on behalf of the Organisers before the Exhibitor's participation in the Exhibition, and the Exhibitor waives all rights and remedies which, but for this paragraph, might otherwise be available to it in respect of any such representation, warranty, collateral contract or other assurance, provided that nothing in this paragraph shall limit or exclude any liability for fraud. Nothing in this Contract shall create a relationship of landlord and tenant or landlord and the Exhibitor or give the Exhibitor any estate or interest in the Exhibition Space other than a non-exclusive licence.

The provisions contained in each clause, paragraph and subparagraph of these Terms and Conditions shall be enforceable independently of each of the others and its validity shall not be affected if any of the others is invalid. If any of those provisions is void but would be valid if some part of the provision were deleted, the provision in question shall apply with such modification as may be necessary to make it valid. In the event of any conflict between these Terms and Conditions and the Exhibitor's Manual, these Terms and Conditions shall prevail to the extent of any such inconsistency.
